

Veranstaltungsort: Bildungszentrum 21 / Hotel Odelya, Missionsstrasse 21, CH-4055

Anmeldung: Bitte bis 10.11. bei niccolo.savaresi@unibas.ch

Organisation: Dr. Matthias Müller-Krähenbühl & MA Niccòlo Savaresi

Weitere Informationen: <https://daw.philhist.unibas.ch/de/graduierentagungen/>

Educating Talents since 1460.

Universität Basel
Departement Altertumswissenschaften
Petersgraben 51
4051 Basel
Schweiz

<https://daw.philhist.unibas.ch> sekretariat-depaw@unibas.ch

www.unibas.ch

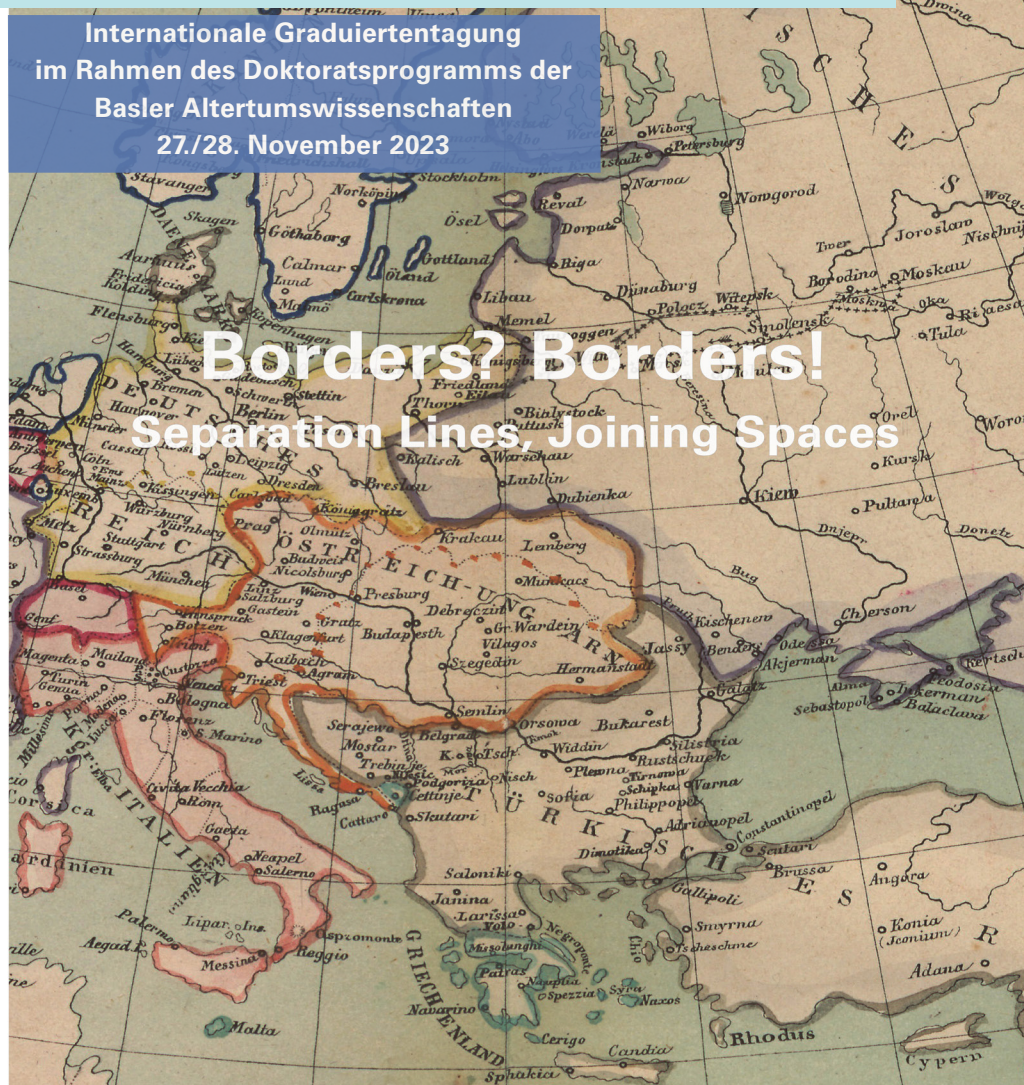

Universität
Basel

Departement
Altertumswissenschaften

Internationale Graduiertentagung
im Rahmen des Doktoratsprogramms der
Basler Altertumswissenschaften
27./28. November 2023

Borders? Borders! Separation Lines, Joining Spaces

Karte: Gutmann, Karl A., and Friedrich Schmidt. Atlas Zur Allgemeinen, Deutschen Und Bayerischen Geschichte. Erlangen: Deichert, 1880. Print.

Bildungszentrum 21/Hotel Odelya, Missionsstrasse 21, 4055 Basel

Anmeldung bis 10.11. bei niccolo.savaresi@unibas.ch

Programm

Montag, 27. November

09.00–09.10 Welcome

Perspectives on the Egyptian-Nubian borderscape

09.10–09.40 Dr. H. C. Bishop-Wright, Cardiff: Between Meroë and Memphis: Long-Term Change on the Nubian Frontier c. 275 BC – AD 300

09.40–10.10 Dr. R. Lemos, Cambridge: Who do borders separate? A workers' perspective on the Egyptian-Nubian borderscape

10.10–10.40 Coffee break

Romans face to the Rhine

10.40–11.10 MA. M. De Coster, Prof. Dr. G. R. Davies, Dr. L. M. Kootkerk, Amsterdam: Exploring Human Dynamics on the Lower Germanic Limes: A Microscopic View through Isotope Analysis

11.10–11.40 MA. A. Van der Weij, Utrecht: The South and the North? Burial practices in the Lower German limes area

11.40–12.10 MA. A. Ruiter, Amsterdam: Fibulae in the borderlands – The Lower Germanic Limes

12.10–12.30 Final discussion

12.30–14.30 Lunch

Landscape divisions

14.30–15.00 MA. A. Lario Devesa, Barcelona: Physical, administrative and religious boundaries between the Roman city and its territorium in Hispania Tarraconensis

15.00–15.30 MA. D. Monti, Louvain: Collective identities and the multiplication of the border: the case of the Sabines in pre-Roman central Italy

15.30–16.00 Coffee break

Visualizing otherness

16.00–16.30 MA. K. S. Madden, Sheffield: Wartime Violence and the Traffic of Captive Women and Children in the Iconography of Roman Conquest (c. 50 BC–200 AD)

16.30–17.00 Prof. Dr. S. Pérard, Dijon: Neutrality in Etruscan Body

17.00–17.30 Final discussion

19.30 Conference dinner

Programm

Dienstag, 28. November

09.00–09.10 Welcome

Living at the edges of Egypt

9.00–9.40 Dr. J. C. Moreno García, Paris: Borders, mobility and economic interaction in the Nile Valley during the Bronze Age

9.40–10.10 MA. S. Baldin, Basel: Taming land. Agriculture at the boarders with the desert

10.10–10.40 Coffee break

Building boundaries

10.40–11.10 MA. Y. De Raaf, Gothenburg: The construction of the Menelaion Mansions: an energetics approach

11.10–11.40 MA. S. Siegenthaler, Basel: On the Margins of Roman Society.
Social and Spatial Boundaries of Urban Poverty

11.40–12.10 Dr. S. Alfarano, Basel: Living and building (along) borders during Roman and late Antique periods: The limes Aegyptiacus

12.10–12.30 Final discussion

12.30–14.30 Lunch

The arts and the sense of division

14.30–15.00 Dr. C. Luz, Basel: Grenzen und Grenzüberschreitung in den Bildbeschreibungen Philostrats des Jüngeren

15.00–15.30 MA. S. T. Bühler, Basel: Pictorial Borders and the Making of the Late Antique Eastern Levant

15.30–16.00 Coffee break

A Greek East?

16.00–16.30 Dr. E. Regazzoni, Basel: The Western Anatolian Coast as a Borderscape between the Aegean and Inland Anatolia: the Case of “Phrygian” Metalwork

16.30–17.00 MA. C. Tuena, Basel: Caught in between? Questions of power and gender in 4th century BCE Caria

17.00–17.30 Final discussion