The Belt and Road Initiative and Global Governance

Leuven Global Governance series

Edited by Maria Adele Carrai Marie Curie Fellow, Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies, KU Leuven and Fellow, Harvard University Asia Center, US, Jean-Christophe Defraigne, Professor of International Economics, Institute for European Studies, Université Saint-Louis Bruxelles and the Louvain School of Management, UCLouvain, Belgium and Jan Wouters, Full Professor of International Law and International Organizations, Jean Monnet Chair ad personam EU and Global Governance and Director, Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies and Institute for International Law at KU Leuven, Belgium

This timely book examines the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI), assessing its effect on the international economic order and global governance more broadly. Through a variety of qualitative case studies, the book investigates the implementation of the BRI and evaluates its development outcomes both for China and the countries it interacts with under the initiative, along with its international implications.
