

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION	1
1. Statement of the Problem	1
2. Objective of the Study	4
3. Scope of the Study	5
4. Significance of the Study	7
5. Survey of Related Literature	9
6. Definition of Terms	12
7. Division of the Thesis	15
 CHAPTER II: O'COLLINS' UNDERSTANDING OF SYMBOLS AND EXPERIENCE	 18
1. Definition of Symbol	20
2. The Distinction between the Symbol and the Symbolized	22
3. The Distinction between Signs and Symbols	25
4. Historical and Revelatory Character of Symbols	27
a. God's Self-Communication through Symbols	29
b. Power of Symbols	33
c. Credibility of Symbols	37
5. The Subject of Experience	39
a. Experience, Sense, and Knowledge	39
b. The Immediacy of Experience	44
c. Individual and Collective Experience	48
6. The Experience Itself	51
a. The Meaning of Experience	51
b. The Purposefulness or Finality of Experience	53
c. The Concreteness of Experience	53
d. The Newness of Experience	54

e.	Positive and Negative Experience – An Ambiguous Classification	56
7.	The “Aftermath or Consequences” of Experience	57
a.	The Discernment of Experience	58
b.	The Interpretation of Experience	61
c.	The Expression of Experience	65
d.	Memory and Experience	67
8.	Religious Experience	68
a.	Transcendental Experience - “Lower Case” Religious Experience	70
b.	“Upper Case” Religious Experience	74
c.	Primordial Faith and Self-Conscious Faith	76
9.	Concluding Remarks	77
CHAPTER III: O’COLLINS’ UNDERSTANDING OF THE DIVINE REVELATION		87
1.	Revelation: Propositional or Interpersonal?	89
2.	Revelation is both Informative and Effective	95
3.	Revelation within Human Experience	99
4.	Means and Mediators of Revelation	102
a.	Means of Revelation	103
1)	Common and Uncommon Experiences	103
2)	Positive and Negative Experiences	105
3)	Time, Nature and History	107
b.	Mediators of Revelation	110
c.	“Acts of God” in Historical Events	113
d.	Prophetic Experiences	114
5.	Divine Revelation before Christ, with Christ, and after Christ	118
a.	Preparation in the Old Testament History	119
b.	Jesus of Nazareth, the Climax of God’s Saving Revelation	122
1)	The Uniqueness of the Apostolic Experience of the Divine Self-Communication in Jesus Christ	123

2)	Jesus' Origin and Mission from the Father	126
c.	Post-Apostolic Revelation or the Continuity of Revelation	131
d.	"Foundational" and "Dependent" Revelation	133
1)	"Mediate" and "Immediate" Revelation?	134
2)	"Revelation" and "Manifestation" or "Communication?"	135
3)	"Foundational" and "Participant" Revelation?	136
4)	"Foundational" and "Dependent" Revelation	137
5)	The End of Foundational Revelation	140
6.	Revelation and Scriptures	143
a.	Scriptures - Witness and Interpretation of Revelation	143
b.	Revelation Goes beyond the Scriptures	145
c.	Scriptures - Living Word of God for Us Today	147
7.	Revelation, Scriptures and Tradition	153
a.	Tradition as a Human Reality	153
b.	Christian Tradition – a Human and Divine Reality	155
c.	Tradition – the Prerequisite of the Scriptures	156
d.	Tradition Includes the Scriptures	159
8.	Revelation and Faith	164
a.	Faith Presupposes Confession of, Commitment to, and Confidence in God's Revelation	164
b.	Faith, Result of the Preached Word and Interior Grace	168
c.	The Role of Reason in Faith	169
1)	The Necessity of Reason in the Human Move toward Faith	169
2)	The Essential but Limited Role of Reason	171
d.	Knowing, Loving and Hoping in Faith's Response	175
1)	The Interaction of Confession, Commitment and Hope	176
2)	Confession, Commitment and Hope to and in Christ	179
9.	Concluding Remarks	183

CHAPTER IV: O'COLLINS' UNDERSTANDING OF SYMBOLS, EXPERIENCE AND REVELATION, A THEOLOGICAL BASIS FOR

THE THEOLOGY OF RELIGIONS IN THE CASE OF JACQUES DUPUIS	196
1. History as the History of Salvation	198
a. Salvation History and World History	199
b. Covenants and Other Religious Traditions	202
c. The Relationship between the Covenants	206
2. God's Presence in History	208
a. God's Presence in and through Jesus Christ	208
1) The University of the Logos, Christ	208
2) The University and Particularity of Jesus Christ	210
b. God's Presence in and through the Holy Spirit	217
c. God's Presence in and through the Church	222
1) Human Orientation and Relation to the Church	223
2) The Church, Universal Mediation?	224
3) The Church, Sacrament of the Kingdom of God	225
3. Non-Christian Religions
in the Divine Economy of Revelation and Salvation	229
a. The World Religions and God's Economy of Revelation	229
1) The Universality of Divine Revelation	230
2) The Scriptures of the World Religions – Bearers of Divine Revelation	232
b. Non-Christian Religions, Ways of Salvation	237
1) A Common Ultimate Goal	237
2) "Many and Various Ways"	239
c. The Expression of Saving Values and Their Convergence	242
1) Discerning Saving Values	242
2) "Complementary Values and Convergent Paths"	243
4. Concluding Remarks	247

CHAPTER V: CONCLUSION

263-272

BBREVIATIONS

1. The Second Vatican Council's Documents

- NA: Nostra Aetate
- LG: Lumen Gentium
- DV: Dei Verbum
- AG: Ad Gentes
- GS: Gaudium et Spes

2. The Papal Documents

- RH: Encyclical Letter Redemptor Hominis, John Paul II, Mar. 4, 1979.
- RM: Encyclical Letter Redemptoris Missio, John Paul II, Dec. 7, 1990.

3. The Documents of the Dicasteries of Roman Curia

- DP: Dialogue and Proclamation, May 19, 1991.
- DI: Declaration Dominus Jesus, Aug. 6, 2000.

4. Other Abbreviations

- CDF: The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith.
- FABC: The Federation of Asian Bishops' Conferences.